

Proper 7B Psalm 107:29–32; antiphon: v. 28

P Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress.

C He made the storm be still, and the waves of the sea were hushed.

P Then they were glad that the waters were quiet, and he brought them to their desired haven.

C Let them thank the Lord for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of men!

P Let them extol him in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

C Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning is now, and will be forever. Amen.

P Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress.

CATECHISM*Redemption*

And in Jesus Christ... judge the living and the dead.

What does this mean?

I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the virgin Mary, is my Lord, who has redeemed me, a lost and condemned person, purchased and won me from all sins, from death, and from the power of the devil; not with gold or silver, but with His holy, precious blood and with His innocent suffering and death, that I may be His own and live under Him in His kingdom and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, just as He is risen from the dead, lives and reigns to all eternity. This is most certainly true.
