

Proper 15B Psalm 111:1–5, 9; antiphon: v. 10

P The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; all those who practice it have a good understanding. His praise endures forever!

C Praise the Lord! I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

P Great are the works of the Lord, studied by all who delight in them.

C Full of splendor and majesty is his work, and his righteousness endures forever.

P He has caused his wondrous works to be remembered; the Lord is gracious and merciful.

C He provides food for those who fear him; he remembers his covenant forever.

P He sent redemption to his people; he has commanded his covenant forever. Holy and awesome is his name!

C Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning is now, and will be forever. Amen.

P The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; all those who practice it have a good understanding. His praise endures forever!

The Fourth Petition

Give us this day our daily bread.

What does this mean?

God certainly gives daily bread to everyone without our prayers, even to all evil people, but we pray in this petition that God would lead us to realize this and to receive our daily bread with thanksgiving.

What is meant by daily bread?

Daily bread includes everything that has to do with the support and needs of the body, such as food, drink, clothing, shoes, house, home, land, animals, money, goods, a devout husband or wife, devout children, devout workers, devout and faithful rulers, good government, good weather, peace, health, self-control, good reputation, good friends, faithful neighbors, and the like.
