

Title: We are God’s
Text: <Psalm 31> (pew bible pg. 545)

*“Into your hand I commit my spirit; you have redeemed me, O LORD, faithful God”
Psalm 31:5*

We, with all the saints, _____ our lives to God, knowing that we are His.

Communion at Faith

The Lord’s Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that in Communion we receive not only the bread and wine, but Christ’s very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sins. Our Lord invites all those who trust His words, repent of sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us.

Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar. Those who eat and drink our Lord’s body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm. Any who are not yet instructed (confirmed), in doubt, or who holds a confession differing from this congregation and the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, are asked first to speak with the Pastor.

For those who prefer not to drink wine, there is one cup of white grape juice (which contains one drop of wine) in the inner ring of the cup tray. Please register your communion on the Record of Fellowship booklets at the end of the pews. Thank you!

Commemoration of Faithful Departed

P Holy Scripture says in Psalm 116:15: “Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.” On this All Saints’ Day, we remember and give thanks and praise to God for the life and for the death of His saints. We rejoice with those who rejoice, and that includes rejoicing with those whose happiness now knows no end in the kingdom of glory. During the past year, families in our congregation and our extended church family have been impacted greatly by the death of ones we love. As those who trust in Jesus Christ, we do not grieve as the rest of the world grieves. We grieve in hope, we pray with confidence, and we live with certainty that those who have died in Christ are secure in His presence. We also rejoice that one day we shall join them in their heavenly joy, which knows no end.

We honor the life and give thanks to God for these His saints:

Jim Hemker Donald Logelin

P . . . and all others dear to our hearts who have entered into everlasting rest with the Lord Jesus.

Let us pray.

Merciful Father, whose dear Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, rose victoriously over death and the grave, we remember with thanksgiving Your faithful people who have trusted in Christ, whose tears are gone, and whose sorrows You have turned to joy. We humbly implore You to strengthen us in the confident hope of the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Verse to Ponder 2 Thessalonians 3:3
³But the Lord is faithful. He will establish you and guard you against the evil one.

All Saints Day
November 6, 2022

Our purpose: Faith Lutheran Church exists to share with all, God's love through Christ and His promise of salvation!*

As We Gather... The Introit comes from the Latin word "he enters" and is spoken or sung as the minister enters the front of the church. Usually it contains an excerpt from a Psalm. Today's Introit takes selections from Psalm 31. Of particular note is verse 5 "Into your hand I commit my spirit; you have redeemed me, O LORD, faithful God." This recalls the last words of Jesus from the cross as well as the last words of many other faithful Christians. In the same vein, this line is sung at the bedtime service of Compline. It calls to mind the line from the hymn "Teach me to live that I may dread the grave as little as my bed. Teach me to die that so I may rise glorious at the awe-full day" (LSB 883). On this All Saints Day, we follow the example of the saints who have gone before us who have committed their spirits into the Lord's hands, and now cheer us on as the great cloud of witnesses.*
