

Proper 6B Psalm 92:12–15; antiphon: v. 1

P It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to sing praises to your name, O Most High.

C The righteous flourish like the palm tree and grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

P They are planted in the house of the Lord; they flourish in the courts of our God.

C They still bear fruit in old age; they are ever full of sap and green,

P to declare that the Lord is upright; he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

C Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning is now, and will be forever. Amen.

P It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to sing praises to your name, O Most High.

CATECHISM

The First Article

Creation

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

What does this mean?

I believe that God has made me and all creatures; that He has given me my body and soul, eyes, ears, and all my members, my reason and all my senses, and still takes care of them. He also gives me clothing and shoes, food and drink, house and home, wife and children, land, animals, and all I have. He richly and daily provides me with all that I need to support this body and life. He defends me against all danger and guards and protects me from all evil. All this He does only out of fatherly, divine goodness and mercy, without any merit or worthiness in me. For all this it is my duty to thank and praise, serve and obey Him. This is most certainly true.

Matthew 17:20

He said to them, "Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you."
