

Proper 7B Psalm 107:29–32; antiphon: v. 28

P Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress.

C He made the storm be still, and the waves of the sea were hushed.

P Then they were glad that the waters were quiet, and he brought them to their desired haven.

C Let them thank the Lord for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of men!

P Let them extol him in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

C Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning is now, and will be forever. Amen.

P Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress.

Creation

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

What does this mean?

I believe that God has made me and all creatures; that He has given me my body and soul, eyes, ears, and all my members, my reason and all my senses, and still takes care of them. He also gives me clothing and shoes, food and drink, house and home, wife and children, land, animals, and all I have. He richly and daily provides me with all that I need to support this body and life. He defends me against all danger and guards and protects me from all evil. All this He does only out of fatherly, divine goodness and mercy, without any merit or worthiness in me. For all this it is my duty to thank and praise, serve and obey Him. This is most certainly true.
